Tennessee Valley Winds, originally the Murfreesboro Community Concert Band, is a non-profit, volunteer wind ensemble dedicated to providing quality musical performances in Middle Tennessee since 1984. Composed of amateur and professional musicians alike, Tennessee Valley Winds offers a unique atmosphere for musicians of every age to develop their craft and play cooperatively.

THANK YOU

We would like to offer our thanks to the Stones River National Battlefield for sponsoring and hosting our concert today. We encourage you to learn more by exploring the visitor center. The Battle of Stones River began on the last day of 1862, and was one of the bloodiest conflicts of the Civil War. The battle produced important military and political gains for the Union, and it forever changed the people who lived and fought here.

ERICH ZIMMERMAN

Erich Zimmerman has recently retired from his 28-year career as a music educator in Middle Tennessee. Prior to entering the classroom, Mr. Zimmerman performed with the United States Navy Band in Washington, D.C., on his primary instrument – trumpet. Mr. Zimmerman earned his Bachelor of Science in Music Education from Tennessee Tech University, a Master of Music in Trumpet Performance from the University of Texas, and a Master +30 certificate from Middle Tennessee State University in Administration and Supervision.

DANIEL IBARRA-SCURR

A native of Miami, Florida, Daniel earned his Bachelor and Master of Music Education degrees from Vanderbilt University. He has taught and conducted a variety of ensembles in both Florida and Tennessee. Daniel has attended conducting workshops both in the United States and Spain and has also enjoyed guest conducting for his local church choir.
